1. LIN Piao and CH'EN Yi visited Peiping in the middle of ~~July~~ at which time the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) officials met under the chairmanship of MAO Tse-tung. The following policy decisions were made at this meeting:
  - a. The CCP would continue its world peace campaign. It would strengthen the anti-imperialist united front for Asia.
  - b. The Chinese Communist Government would resist* US invasion of Korea and Taiwan and demand the withdrawal of US forces from those countries.
  - c. The CCP would prevent the outbreak of a new war if possible, but at the same time the Chinese would hasten defensive preparations.
  - d. The Chinese Communist Government would reiterate its determination to take Taiwan.
  - e. The Chinese Communists would support the North Koreans and Ho Chi Minh by all means short of armed intervention.
2. LIN Piao went from Hankow to Tsinan, then to Peiping for this and other meetings. After the meetings he went to Mukden and then returned to Tsinan. He was in Tsinan as of 1 September and expects to go to a meeting of the Central and South China Military and Political Commission to be held in Hankow on 15 September.
3. There are two armies of the Chinese Communist 4 Field Army on the Korean border, estimated to total 50,000 men.** These troops have not received orders to participate in the Korean fighting.**
